

Call Before You Dig

Call Before You Dig

ALL locates for EARTH Power, formerly Erie Thames Powerlines, must be logged through Ontario One Call (ON1CALL). To request your free locate contact ON1CALL at 1-800-400-2255 or on1call.com.

Planning a home improvement project that involves digging in your yard? Before you or your contractor start work, call Ontario One Call (ON1CALL) to assess your land to ensure you will not be digging in areas that hold underground power lines. Digging through power lines is extremely dangerous and can cause serious injuries. Please contact ON1CALL customer service department for assistance.

Contact ON1CALL to have all your utilities located. Having your utilities thoroughly checked before you dig is the law under Section 228 of the Ontario Occupational Health and Safety Act.

Avoid inconveniences and delays by submitting your request at least 5 business days before you begin digging in your yard. Simply call ON1CALL at 1-800-400-2255 for a free locate.

If you have a power-related emergency please call us directly at 519-485-1820 or 1-877-850-3128